| New York, August 25.—New York again went into the lead to-day by defeating Pittsburg in the third game of the series. Hendrix, a recruit, pitched a great game, holding the Giants to two hits. Ve was retired in the eighth to let Campbell bat for him, and New York won out in the second half of the inning by bunching two hits on Steele with a pass. Ames was very wild at the start, but only one run was scored against him. Crandall, who succeeded him in the third inning, pitched a steady game.

Pertinent Comment

By GUS MALBERT.

Several of the local hits were due to bad sounds and the slippery condition of the ilamond. However, the result would have seen the same.

Remarkable Christmas Present

Pat Krebs looks after his garden all right. Mighty few in the air got away from him, and he dashes hopes to the ground with reckless abandon. Among the curious Christmas presents of this year will be one for a man of national reputation, which has been all year in the making.

Way last January the present was decided upon, and a friend of the prominent gentleman requested the Burrelle Press Clipping Bureau, of New York, to watch every paper in America and to take up every item which appeared concerning the man.

Five infield hits helped the Colts to win. Baker, with two out in the third, layed one down to the astoniehment of the entire Lynchburg team, and he beat it, too.

Griffin and Cowan (running for Wallace tried a double steal in the sixth, but George was caught at third.

Nothing like being fast on the bases to keep a team in front. Notice where the Glants are? Nothing but fast and heady buserunning did it.
